

COOKIE STATEMENT VISCON GROUP

Visser 's-Gravendeel Holding B.V. ([Viscon Group], 'we' or 'us') attach a great deal of importance to the privacy of users ('User', 'you' or 'your') who visit [<https://viscongroup.eu/>] ('the Website') or the websites of affiliated companies. In this Cookie Statement, the Viscon Group informs you about the way in which cookies are used on its <https://viscongroup.eu/> ('the Website') and on the websites linked to the company. (See the privacy statement for an overview of all websites).

The Website uses cookies and similar technologies (hereinafter referred to as 'cookies') to automatically collect information about you when you visit the Website. Cookies are small text files that websites use to make the user's experience more efficient. Some of these cookies are necessary for the operation of our Website, while others are used to support your experience, personalise content and improve your browser environment.

We base the use of cookies on our legitimate interest in achieving the purposes described in this Cookie Statement.

If you want to delete cookies or configure your web browser to delete or refuse cookies, go to your web browser's settings pages. The various browsers may have different cookie preferences, which may mean that there are different cookies for each browser. For more information, consult the help page for your web browser. Please bear in mind that if you delete cookies or refuse to accept them, you may not be able to use all the functions that we offer, you may not be able to save your preferences and some of our pages may not be displayed correctly.

We may amend this Cookie Statement. Amendment notifications will be placed on this Website page. If there are important amendments, we will ask you for your consent again if necessary. This Cookie Statement was last updated on 22-11-2018.

We may process your personal data when using certain cookies.

For general information about how we process your personal data, including information about how you can exercise your rights under the law, please consult our Privacy Statement.

WHICH COOKIES DOES THE VISCON GROUP USE?

We use the following cookies:

- a) Functional and technically necessary cookies: the following cookies make sure that the Website functions properly.

We use functional and technically necessary cookies to ensure that the Website functions properly. We do not use affiliate cookies and advertisement cookies.

- b) Analytical cookies: We use analytical cookies to collect information about how the Website is accessed and used. We measure Website usage to improve it so that you can get a better visitor experience. We use Google Analytics to generate statistics about visits to the Website using a web analysis system.

- c) Third-party social media cookies: We use social media or third-party cookies on the Website. Examples include the 'like' button on Facebook, or the option to share information via social media (such as Instagram, Facebook, Twitter, Google+, LinkedIn, and YouTube). These cookies are only placed with your consent. You are entitled to revoke your consent at any time, without prejudice to the lawfulness of the processing based on your consent before the revocation.

Social media and third-party cookies are placed by social media websites themselves. A social media cookie is placed when you click on a social media button on the Website. This makes it possible for the social media provider to recognise your IP address when you want to share part of the Website via their platform. Because social media organisations place these cookies, they are responsible for the data that they collect with them. Please refer to the statements about this that these organisations have on their own websites:
